Camp Tracy

Camp Tracy was founded in 1962 as a YMCA Day Camp. While it continues in that mission, the 32-acre camp continues to expand. We offer:

- Climbing wall and ropes course programs
- An outdoor environment with lake frontage
- Tennis court
- An outdoor theater
- Canoes
- The Four Season Lodge

Winter camping and ice fishing are winter possibilities.

A RESOURCE FOR MAINE ORGANIZATIONS!

Our facility, nestled in a beautiful and natural camp setting on McGrath Pond, is ideal for many reasons. A change in environment may be just the right ingredient to help achieve you goals.

Schools run orientations, seminars or team building sessions for groups such as student councils and professional development for staff.

Businesses, Churches, Non-Profits can provide staff orientations, trainings, management leadership seminars, Board retreats and strategic planning sessions. Camp Tracy professional staff can provide outdoor activities in team building and problem-solving as well as board and staff development opportunities.

Four Season Lodge at Camp Tracy

Our facility provides an ideal environment for your group to achieve its goals as well as to have a satisfying and rewarding experience.

A comfortable, clean facility in a tranquil and natural setting; ideal for retreats, lectures, courses, presentations, strategic planning and leadership seminars. Full kitchen, two large rooms, breakout rooms, bunks for overnights, 2 full bathrooms/showers and Wi-Fi service.
